RECTOR'S RAMBLINGS – JULY 2018

Time is flying, as I write these ramblings I am already a third of the way through my sabbatical study leave. By the time you read them it will be over half way. Sir Isaac Newton said time was relative and $e=mc^2$ and a lot of other things. And I have had some time to reflect on this in my travels. Most of this has been unplanned time with delays at airports and pickups a common occurrence. However, throughout all this I wonder if I should be learning to be more patient, maybe this is what God wants me to learn, to do things in His time and in His way rather than my own?

During these months we are taking advantage of the opportunity to invite some guest speakers to come to our services. This has been a habit and practice at our summer sermon series at St. Peter's Steane for some time, where at a traditional Evensong we have listened to a guest speaker. This month we are looking forward to hearing the rev Eddie Smith come and share with us. Some of our readers will remember that Eddie was a curate here some years ago before I came, and it is lovely to welcome him back again. We will also be looking forward in September to hearing from the Gompertzes in what has become their traditional September slot. If any body doesn't know who they are Peter Gompertz was Rector here before Gill Barker.

But we are also now inviting some guest speakers at our Sunday morning services on the third Sunday of the month. We have heard from Bob Forster from Tear Fund in June and from Katie Jenkinson from the Church Mission Society in May. This month we look forward to hearing from Samantha and Ian Turvey-and the work they do with the charity World Vision. I hope in the busy time of summer that you might be able to make a little time to come and join and hear what they have to share.

And talking of time, I want to thank Helen and Carrie and their team of helpers who have given of their time in preparation for our summer holiday club for children. This takes place at All Saints School Croughton from 23rd July – 27rd July ending with a special celebration service at Croughton Church on Sunday 29th July at 10am. My thanks also go to all who will be helping during the week and making the Christian holiday club possible and for all who give of their time to help the many activities taking place this summer.

Well Done and Thank You!!!

At the monthly Parish Council meetings Village Hall matters are always included on the Agenda. This includes a Report from the most recent Village Hall Committee meeting.

The Parish Council want to publicly thank, and acknowledge, all those people in the village who over the last 12/18 months have transformed the Village Hall building and garden, the website, the membership of the 150 club, increased bookings and created an exciting and varied events calendar with events that have been well attended.

A very big thank you is extended to the Chairman of the Committee, Dave Hancock and to all of his hard working Committee members who have worked tirelessly on behalf of our community.

Also, thank you to all those many volunteers from the village who are not on the committee but who have been involved in building works, cleaned, gardened, set up and decorated the hall, made decorations, made cakes and helped in any way that they can.

Well done and thank you to you all.

Mick Morris

Farthinghoe Parish Council

VILLAGE HALL NEWS

The Village Hall Committee have had a successful year, including upgrading facilities in the hall. Bookings are going well and the outside area is looking more inviting, and includes a new Barbeque area.

The film club showed The Italian Job, which transported some of us back to our youth, and made the younger members wonder how we survived without technology!

The present committee will be resigning and standing for re-election in the AGM which is to be held on Wednesday 25th July, at 7pm.

We would welcome new members to join us, as we are always looking for new ideas. Anyone interested can speak to any committee member to find out what is involved.

We look forward to seeing you at the AGM, which will include a glass of wine, or tea and coffee.

Open Gardens 2018

Thank you to everyone who visited our Open Gardens and helped us to raise £600 towards Katharine House Hospice.

Also, thanks to all the helpers and everyone who made cakes for the teas, and the Church Fete teas.
